PLAYER OF THE WEEK

SAM HONECK, 1B, VIENNA SENATORS

Sam Honeck of the Vienna Senators, the defending champions of the Clark Griffith League, has been selected as the fifth Player of the Week for the 2007 Clark C. Griffith Collegiate Baseball League season. Honeck, a first baseman from Grayson Community College, hit .458 for the week, smacked six home runs and collected 12 RBIs to help the Senators go 6-0. Honeck, who will be transferring to Tulane this fall, hit a home run in every game this week. His latest longball on July 12 helped get the winning runs for Vienna against the Fairfax Nationals. That July 12 win against Fairfax put the Senators in first place for the first time this season. The Austin, Texas native leads the league in slugging and on-base percentage and is tied for first in home runs.

BACKGROUND: This spring with Grayson Community College, Honeck batted .372 with 12 home runs and 56 RBI ... Honeck was drafted by the New York Yankees in 2006.

PITCHER OF THE WEEK

NATE NEWMAN, RHP, VIENNA SENATORS

Nate Newman of the Vienna Senators has been selected as the fifth Pitcher of the Week for the 2007 Clark C. Griffith Collegiate Baseball League season. Newman, a right-handed pitcher and rising junior from Grayson Community College, made two appearances and held opposing batters to a .102 batting average in the Senators' way to a 6-0 record this week. The Houston, Texas native threw 15 innings, and struck out 22 batters on his way to two victories. He ended the week with a 0.60 ERA and walked just two batters and only gave up 5 hits. Newman, who will be transferring to Pepperdine, combined for a shutout against the Bethesda Blue Caps on July 3, as he hurled eight innings and struck out nine batters. Newman also helped his team in a 12-3 victory against the Fairfax Nationals on July 11, by throwing seven innings and striking out thirteen.

BACKGROUND: With Grayson Community College this spring, Newman made eight appearances and struck out 20 batters...Newman won the Pitcher of the Week on June 21...Newman won the 2007 Home Run Derby, by slugging 8 home runs in the final round...this is his second season with the Senators.
